It is said that Halley's comet will not injure the Delaware peach crop, but it would be a deal more to the point if astronomers could offer some assurance that it will not effect the crop of June brides.

The report that a valuable nugget of gold quartz has been picked up in the street of a Rhode Island town is not likely to turn that busy industrial center into a mining camp. Little Rhodey will continue to get its chief prosperity from its manufactures.

Mr. Durand, the director of the census, has been casting a preliminary glance over the field, and he makes a rough estimate that the enumeration this year will show a population of between 85-000,000 and 90,000,000. The directors estimate would seem to be conservative as it does not include any extraordinary growth.
In fact, according to his total the ratio of increase would be smaller than in the preceding ten years.
The census of 1900 gave a population of 78,903,887, a gain of nearly 14,000,000 over 1890. A corresponding gain from 1880 to 1910 would send the figures considerably over the 90,000,000 mark. In fact, the World Almanac, taking the estimates of governors of states and territories, places the population for the United States at present at 91,019,810. There has been some remarkable development in some localities, and the final results of the census taking this year may furnish some surprises.

FRAN OF DEATH.

Curiously enough, too, as age comes upon and the inevitable draws nearer, fear is not discernible in the conduct or attitude of the average man, if one may judge of his interests in what goes on about him, his cheerfulness and his serene outlook on the world—a cheerfulness and serenity that are not all of religious origin. It was a wise Providence that hid the hour of the coming of the dark angel from the knowledge of human creatures, thus travailing always the thought that it is not today, but at some uncertain and, therefore, not to be dreaded time in the future. Even with invalids who know their days are numbered, a kindly power mercifully softens their natural dread and enables them to go down in seeming dignity and self-control into the valley of the shadow.

It is the belief, too, of physicians and others who have witnessed many deaths that in a vast majority of cases the passing mortal meets this natural process as he meets sleep with his mental faculties unclouded—or are they cleared—that all fear or dread is lost and the end of life is like the end of a peaceful day.

There seems to be no limit to the adaptability of the automatism to modern times. The machine is employed in all sorts of ways, one of the latest instances being the ordering of avian for the consumption on cattle ranches in the West and now there comes from Hawthorne the announcement that a motor bank, the latest thing in progressive finance, has been put on its wheels through New York city. This is coupled with the statement that the traveling bank is already well known in America. Though the news will be somewhat surprising here. The idea of a motor bank seems to be to visit customers instead of having customers come to the bank.
The motor is fitted up with a counter and other facilities by which the banker is enabled to receive and pay out money. Of course a safe must be taken along, and there are proper safe guards against robbery. From all of which it appears that the man with money is not content to keep it in the bank, but is taking care of it for him. The motor bank

HELPFUL WORDS

From a Bethel Citizen.

In your back lanes and painful Does it ache especially after exercise?
Is there a soreness in the kidney region?
These symptoms indicate weak kidneys.
There is danger in delay.
Weak kidneys fast get weaker.
Give your trouble prompt attention.
Dean's Kidney Pills act quickly.
They strengthen weak kidneys.
Read this Bethel testimony.

C. H. Heath, Railroad St., Bethel, Maine, says:
"I am only too glad to recommend Dean's Kidney Pills. In my case back ache and tenderness were common. I often became dizzy and noticed that the kidney secretions were very unpleasant. During the night the kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and caused me great annoyance.
Someone told me to try Dean's Kidney Pills and I purchased a supply from W. H. Bousman's Drug Store. The first few doses helped me and in several weeks I was entirely cured. I give Dean's Kidney Pills the credit for this great change."

DIXFIELD ITEMS.

The Happenings of the Week as gathered by the Citizen Reporter.

A very interesting discourse was that of Rev. Paul Curtis at the F. D. church, Sunday morning, from the words found in Hebrews, 4th chapter, 11th verse. The evening meeting was much enjoyed, Mr. Curtis being present at that service.

The subject of Rev. W. E. Gaskin's discourse Sunday morning at the Universalist church was "The Dress of the Christian," from the words found in 3rd chapter of Colossians. The Pastor is giving a series of sermons at the evening services, on "Examples of Heroism Inspired by Christ." The first of the series was "The Martyrs," that of last Sunday evening was "The Hermits," and that of Sunday evening, May 1st, will be "The Monks."

The Bible Study and teachers' training class for 5th ward will meet this Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Russell.

The 21st anniversary of Odd Fellowship will be observed at the lodge rooms of Tuxton Lodge, J. O. O. F. next Sunday p. m. at 2:30 o'clock, April 24.
Rev. E. W. Webber of Livermore Falls will be present and deliver an address to the fraternity and their friends. A cordial invitation is extended to all to be present.

Next Sunday evening there will be a union service held at the Universalist church. Rev. Paul Curtis of Auburn, pastor of the West Paris and Dixfield F. D. churches, will be present and give an interesting talk on the Anti-slavery movement. It is hoped that a large audience will be present.
The farm buildings, consisting of house, all stable and barn, of Bert Whittemore, in the lower part of the town, known as the Fred Weida place, were burned about 10 o'clock Friday evening, April 16th. Mr. Whittemore was suddenly awakened by the smell of smoke and had barely time to escape with his wife and three children, in their night clothes, taking only such things as they could seize as they rushed out. Mr. Whittemore and wife got the stock out of the barn but lost all the wagon, harness and farming tools with eight tons of hay. Nothing was lost from the house. It is said that the fire was caused by leaving a lighted lamp under a shelf which caught fire.
The loss is estimated to be $5,000 with an insurance. Mr. and Mrs. Whittemore are young people, industrious, and esteemed by their many friends, who extend sympathy in their loss.
The young people are looking forward with much pleasure to the band concert and ball to be given at Tuxton Opera Hall, Friday evening, April 29th.
The concert given by the Dixfield band are always of high order, well patronized and much appreciated, and this will prove of higher exception if either to those previously given, or will be the record of the season. Mr.
Hall, and a large attendance is expected.
An supper and party supper will be served in Tuxton banquet hall.

Mrs. W. M. Pease entertained the Jolly Night Whist Club Friday p. m. of last week.

Mr. George Marsh, who was quite ill last week, is able to be out on the street.

Mrs. Helen Powers is in Boston for medical treatment. Her brother, R. H.
Sanders accompanied her.

The charming comedietta "The Happy Pair" and the laughable farce "The Obliged Woman" will be given under the auspices of the Eastern Star at Tuxton Opera House, this Thursday evening. The entertainment will be followed by dancing.

Mr. J. P. Edwards has had a bath room put into his house.

Mr. Ouy O. Gardner, Dixfield's popular druggist, has two new ice cream tables in connection with his new soda fountain and with the two popular lunches, Bertie, Marlock and Roger Smith, this store no doubt, will be the center of attraction for the young people during the coming season.

I. W. Berry, the general manager of the Oxford Farmers' Cooperative Telephone Co. was in town last week, in company with Mr. H. W. Cook of Dixfield who had been employed by the company to take charge of the construction of the new line which will be in operation in the early summer.
Work will begin on the same at the village, April 26th.

Miss Susan Bartlett, who has been in New York, Boston, and Auburn, the past few months, returned home Thursday last week.

A new hunter has recently been installed in the Foster estate pick mill.
Wm. Kentis and family, formerly of this place, will spend the summer on a farm at Paris.

Guy Brown was the twirling star for Norway, put out an excellent article and caught twelve of the visitors in the air fanning trick. This is early in the season and it is hardly fair to expect great things, but present appearances would indicate the need of good hard practice in both teams before a real heat of speed can be registered.

Pleasant Reveries—A Column Dedicated to Tired Mothers as they Join the Home Circle at Evening Tide.

If solid happiness we prize, Within his breast his jewel lies;
And they are fools who roam:
The world has nothing to bestow;
From our own selves our joys must flow.
And that dear place—our home.

Joe's Looking On.
Seems to me, Joe's lookin' on, that things is travelin' fast.
Tain't half so easy livin' as in the good old days that's past.
We used to slow up then awhile, an take a little rest, An' git a taste of things we folks ne-counted best.
Mebbe I'm a bit too slow for this new century rush,
But I long for flower meadows and the woodland's gentle hush Away off in the valleys where the flowers softly bloom, Where there ain't no rush an' bustle an' there's always plenty room.
Seems to me, Joe's lookin' on, we are carryin' too much steam; Better hug the shores awhile, then get out in the steam:
It's safer in the by-ways than along the crowded street, Where you're jostled an' you're hustled by every one you meet.
Maybe life's to bustle, Joe's to always race far gold, But there's better things for nothin' that can't be bought or sold; Ain't so long to be here, if you're goin' to take you better give, An' seems to me Joe's lookin' on, that's the better way to live.

—MOMMY HAWK.

Written By a Motherless Girl.
Many times a girl could be saved untold suffering, sometimes life itself, if some good christian woman, with her best interest at heart, would but give her the advice she so much needs. We do not accuse you mothers of not allowing a warm sympathy for us, or of an intentional neglect, but if you keep it hid away in your hearts, how can it benefit us? We want your sympathy and love. We know you have your own homes and daughters, your own troubles your own life to live, but could you not sometimes spare a few of your precious moments to the motherless girls at your door, who crave your sympathy and love? It will surely be "bread cast upon the water" and an added star to your diadem. You may think from her surroundings and outward appearance she would not appreciate your interest. Try away. Learn something of her inner life. Outward appearances do not always bespeak inward happiness.

The heart yearning for mother love is never satisfied. Do not think there are any more deserving of pity, for try as we will the world is hard on us.
Much is expected of us, often more than we can give. We are more closely watched, more severely criticised than any one else. The world is ever ready to pull us down. Many for some slight impropriety, which was thoughtlessly committed, must endure the fiery darts of slander, which is by far the most unendurable anguish a human heart ever had to bear, and so our character, dearer than life itself to pure-hearted girls, mercilessly shattered, often by mothers of daughters, who themselves are not our equals in moral worth, by the ones whose God given privilege it is to help, shield and protect girls.
Mothers, will you hold out a helping hand to those who are struggling on discouraged, in some cases unappreciated, who sometimes have no friend save Him who "tempers the wind to the shorn lamb." A kind word rightly spoken, will go a long way to be immortalized in the memory of the one for whom it was intended.

Every child has a right to such an education as will qualify for life's duties. This is recognized as a patriotic duty by the state. The permanence of our political institutions depends on the intelligence of our citizenship. "The bayonets of foreign soldiers are less to be feared than the ballots of ignorant voters." The welfare of the state depends more on the moral and religious training of her citizens than on their intellectual training, yet the state makes no provision for this moral discipline. In some cases it makes it difficult or even impossible to secure such training. The training of the mind is not all. There must be a training of the moral sensibilities, particularly the will. Not all this is the duty of the public schools; part is the duty of the church, but the largest part is the function of the home. Every child deprived, by whatever means, of this education and training is defracted out of an inalienable right, and when he comes into the inheritance of his citizenship, may be depended upon to average himself on the society that perpetrated the fraud upon him. In deference to the views of leaders, athletes and citizens, the Bible is cast out of public schools, and all school books are stripped bare of everything that might tend to build up and strengthen the child's moral character. It is crucially to withhold from children this higher and greater training. Children have rights which the state is bound to respect. It disregards them at its own peril.

Many of us miss the joys that might be ours by keeping our eyes fixed on our own selfish interests. No one can enjoy his own opportunities for happiness while he is envious of another's.
We have a great deal of the joy of living by not cheerfully accepting the small pleasures that come to us every day, instead of longing and waiting for what belongs to others. We do not take any pleasure in our own modest home and carriage, because we long for the automobile or electric car that our neighbor owns. The gods take off the enjoyment of our own little home because we are watching the neighbor's house. We are not satisfied with the problems of our neighbor. We can get no satisfaction out of a truly rich life in the country or a sail on a river steamer.

because someone else can enjoy the luxury of his own carriage or yacht. Life has its full measure of happiness for everyone of us, if we would only make up our minds to make the very most of every opportunity that comes our way, instead of longing for things that come our neighbors way.

There should live in the depths of every human heart one warm and sunny spot where dwells the images of early love and the sweet remembrance of childhood home. The memory of these first impressions made upon the baby's mind and heart will live forever. Oh, how feeling are days of childhood, dear mothers, shall you permit yourselves to be so "unconcerned about much serving" that the sweet garden of your child's mind will be neglected with fast week looking and all worldly and beautiful growth?
